ORDER COMPELLING COMPLIANCE WITH SUMMONS

ON the Petition to Enforce Internal Revenue Service
Summons,

1. The summons was properly issued by the petitioner to the respondent who failed to produce the items sought in the summons.

2. The summons was reasonably certain about the items requested and was not overly broad.

3. The summons was issued for the lawful purpose of securing information necessary to enable a representative of the Internal Revenue Service to prepare an Income Tax Return for respondent.

4. The items sought in the summons are relevant and material to the lawful purpose.

5. No Justice Department referral as defined in 26 U.S.C. § 7602(d)(2)(A) is in effect for the respondent.

6. The respondent was properly notified of the date of the hearing to show cause by the United States Marshal or duly authorized representative.

7. It is, therefore, ORDERED that the respondent comply with the summons and appear on October 2, 2017 at 10:00 a.m., at 12941 North Freeway, 3rd Floor Houston, TX 77060, before Revenue Agent Kendria Bruno, or a designated agent, and produce the records and testimony called for in the summons.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, on this 13th day of September, 2017.

KEITH P. ELLISON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
